CULTURAL RESOURCES

Introduction

Santa Susanna is a village with origins in the twelfth century, when the Alfata valley was populated by farmers who cultivated the fields of vineyards and cereals. From the medieval time are preserved the watchtowers, the chapel of Santa Susanna and old farmhouses, some of them are still habited and as the case of Can Rosich, is used for rural tourism. All buildings are part of our heritage and they keep alive the value of the history.

Watchtowers

Santa Susanna is possibly the town of Maresme that preserves more watchtowers. They were built between s.XV and XVIII as a defence against the pirate attacks, which were common in the area. Mostly of them have a circular base, with the exception of Can Bonet that has a square one.
